Ms. Clifford Yearbook Dedication

Hi everyone! I am Hannah Crehan and I am Emily Dukeman.

On behalf of the graduating Class of 2017, we are here to present this year's yearbook dedication. This year we are recognizing a teacher who is loved by the entire graduating class and her fellow faculty. She is compassionate, humble, thoughtful, hardworking, and well deserving of this award. We are so happy to announce that this year, the yearbook is being dedicated, to Ms. Clifford.

Even if you have never had Ms. Cliff as a teacher, I'm sure you can attest to the huge impact she has had, not only on our senior class, but the entire school. Even if you don't think she knows your name, we can guarantee she does. It is impossible to go a full week without running into Ms. Cliff, as she is always around supporting her students whether it be in math seminar, out on Flahive, or in the auditorium. Ms. Cliff embodies the community spirit that is seen and felt here everyday at Westwood High School. Basketball Captain Christina Bonfiglio says that "you can tell Cliff teaches and coaches with such passion and she is really doing what she loves to do".

Students have nothing but good things to say about her, whether it be in the classroom, on the court or just passing through the halls. What students have recognized the most about her, is the way she undeniably cares for her students. Senior Brett Middleton emphasized that, "No one cares more about their students than Ms. Cliff. She selflessly puts us first everyday whether it be as a coach, a teacher, or as an advisor. There's no problem too big or too small, she just wants to help". Olivia Morgan echoed that "She's honestly so much more than just a teacher to me. She's someone I go to whenever I need advice."

Ms. Cliff makes Westwood High a better place to live and learn, with her kindness, grace and witty sense of humor. She knows how to relate to the senior class, like that time she put "Last Call For Toasted Bagels" as the subject line to an email about senior dues. She really does bring out the best in every one of us, and is always so happy to see students have a great time, at the den, during spirit days, or at the Thanksgiving Pep Rally. She does all that she can to make everyone's high school experience the best 4 years they can be, and something none of us will ever forget.

Ms. Cliff is more than just the face behind those emails reminding you to hand in your senior dues: she is the person who makes the end of senior year so special. When you look back at your Senior Year Facebook album, 20 years from now, and you see all those pictures of the best times with your best friends at prom, the boat cruise, and the field day, you can thank Ms. Cliff for making all of that possible.

Ms. Clifford is a quiet unsung hero here at Westwood High. She does so much for the school, and we are so lucky to have her. No one puts it better than her friend Ms. Mehigan saying that "Ms. Clifford is wise beyond her years, a pillar of reliability and consistency, funny and engaging and most importantly unwavering in her commitment to the students of the senior class".

Congratulations and on behalf of the entire class of 2017, thank you Ms. Clifford.

"...so much more than just a teacher to me"

"No one cares more about their students than Ms. Cliff"

"...teaches and coaches with such passion"

Fond Farewell

"While I await many good things in my new home and my new job, the hardest thing about moving is that there is very little that is good about leaving Westwood. By far the dominant feeling that comes out as I reflect on the last six years of gratitude. To the students, faculty, administration, and staff: thank you for making this place so hard to leave."

~Mr. Jibson

To my incredible students:
"Never be afraid to try something new. Remember,
amateurs built the Ark,
professionals built the Titanic."
-Dave Barry
Stay curious and success will follow!

Best wishes, Ms. Abbot (and yes, there is only ONE "t"!)

"Privileges? Type in. Next. Type in. Do you have a note? Note by 2:00 or it's a detention. Breathe or Die Public Speakers."

~Mr. Price

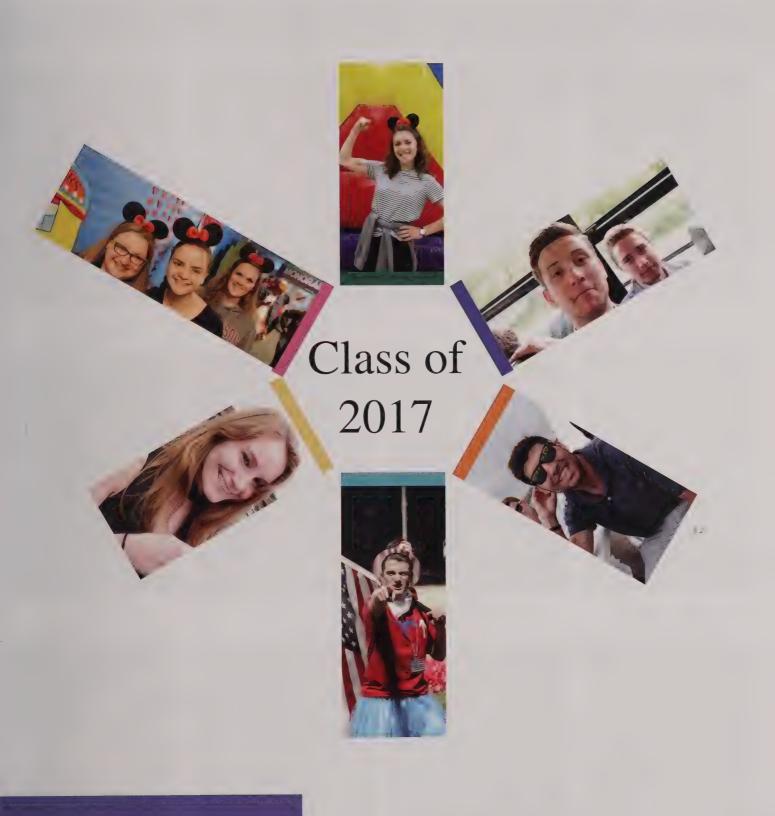

"I've had a great time at WHS! I will miss everything except my commute:)
Best of luck to everyone!"

~Mr. Kermond

"Fantasy is escapist, and that is its glory. If a soldier is imprisoned by the enemy, don't we consider it his duty to escape?... If we value the freedom of mind and soul, if we're partisans of liberty, then it's our plain duty to escape, and to take as many people with us as we can!" -J.R.R. Tolkien. Keep reading! Keep writing! And share your passion with everyone you can!

Ben.

You have made us so proud with all that you have accomplished over the past 17+ years! As Steve Jobs said: "Don't let the noise of other's opinions drown out your own inner voice. And most important, have the courage to follow your heart and intuition. They somehow already know what you truly want to become. Everything else is secondary."

Love always, Mom, Dad and Sammy!!!!!!!

This year's yearbook would not be possible without the hardwork and dedication of many. We would like to give a big thank you to the following individuals for their contributions:

Mr. Mao for capturing the spirit of Westwood High School and tirelessly updating your website with photos. Without your talent the yearbook would not be possible.

Katie Webster for stepping up at this year's editor. It is a great amount of responbility and we appreciate your time and dedication.

To our senior staffers - Hannah Crehan, Emily Dukeman, Brett Iarrobino, and Erin McNulty: Thank you for hard work and best of luck in your future endeavors.

To the remaining staffers - Annabel Cimbal, Emily Padula, Fiona Mastromattei, Nani Doursounian, Grace Perrone, and Megan Lam: It's been a pleasure working with you this year. We hope we didn't scare you away and that we'll see you again in the fall!

Grynn & Barrett for capturing the best side of our students in their portraits and their sports teams.
